Notes. The main enemy, Gullinkambi, is very resistant to damage until the four elemental helpers are defeated. When they are defeated, he takes double damage from magic sources and is heavily resistant to physical damage. Best working strategy is to have several melee kill the elementals (which are weak to physical damage) while someone holds the boss.

A Nest Of Nightmares

I've enjoyed several of Valencourt's classic reissues (McDowell's 'Katie' is a new favorite), but 'Nest of Nightmares' was an exercise in mediocrity. I was hoping to be scared or mildly creeped out, or at the very least experience some dread or foreboding. Or at the very very least, to be intrigued.

A Nest of Nightmares (1986) - Valencourt Books

No surprise, then, that virtually all the stories in A Nest of Nightmares feature women as protagonists. An astute chronicler of the female psyche, Tuttle peoples her stories with the lonely, the lost, the heartbroken; even those who are in relationships seem to have some chasm beneath and between.
